

Apex Executive Interiors Company Profile

Sydney's award winning commercial fitout and refurbishment company

Thanks to all at Apex for making our office refurbishment project a very smooth exercise. They made sure that any disruption was kept to an absolute minimum. Their knowledge of our culture helped produce a stunning and innovative design that provides a great modern working environment. The whole process went without a hitch from pre-project concept meetings to on-site installation and final handover. Great job.

Apex Executive Interiors are committed to designing and building high quality commercial fitouts featuring stylish yet functional interiors at affordable prices.

We are client focused and are committed to building long term relationships with our clients. By following these values we conduct business at the highest levels of integrity in all that we do.

An integral part of our company's service is providing a dedicated project manager for your project. They will support and advise you throughout every stage of your company's fitout from the initial consultation through the construction phase and post project support if needed.

Our primary focus is to ensure minimal disruption to your company's day to day business and a seamless transition into your new work environment.

What we do

Using our extensive knowledge and award winning industry expertise we can help companies streamline their business processes while reducing associated costs.

WE LOCATE

We will help you avoid costly mistakes by identifying your company's requirements and advising on suitable building locations and commercial spaces.

WE DESIGN

Renowned Australia wide for creative and innovative interiors we consistently design commercial office fitouts that combine great style with functionality.

WE BUILD

We can transform the inside of any building, refurbish and adapt your current workplace or construct a completely new office fitout from scratch.

WE DELIVER

Because we deal with the entire process we can guarantee a stress free project with minimal disruption to your company's day to day business.

Apex Executive Interiors were committed to the fitout project from day one, working with us, the building manager, our own management, Board, staff and existing site contacts to not only build us a new site that came in at budget and exceeded our expectations but also supported us in full in the move process in terms of relocating furniture, staff and winding down the existing sites.

ABOUT US

Stephen Parkins
Co-Founder and Director

Karl Moffitt
Director

Apex Executive Interiors was founded in 2006 with a primary focus on customer satisfaction, loyalty, honesty and openness. Today we are one of the most respected and trusted commercial fitout companies in Sydney.

Stephen and Karl have more than 50 years' industry experience between them and ensure full compliance to all licenses, regulations and insurances.

Heading up a close knit team of in-house project managers, designers and estimators they instil a strong culture of mutual respect, attention to detail and pride in workmanship.

Our whole team is committed to understanding and exceeding our customers expectations.

Apex Executive Interiors transformed our tired outdated office into a modern state of the art working environment. Thank you for taking the effort to renew our office and make a change for the better in our working lives.

WHY CHOOSE US

We design and build commercial interiors in Sydney and around Australia to a consistently high standard at an affordable price.

We have a proven track record. Take a look at some of the projects we've completed for our clients.

Gaining our clients' trust has resulted in unprecedented repeat business.

The team at APEX were professional and accommodating from the get go. Building is daunting in its own way, however the team at APEX walked us through step by step. They kept us in the loop with all matters concerning the build and their communication and dedication to their client was paramount and is reflected in the final product.
